

Unique in the imaging sector, the STEMMER IMAGING machine vision test chart is an invaluable calibration and diagnostic tool that helps get the best out of your vision system. The test chart provides various methods of checking, calibrating and performing diagnostic checks on cameras, optics, software and more. On the inside back cover you will find a detailed explanation of its features to help you get the most out of this invaluable tool. A larger A3 version of this chart is also available on request.